Official at Riddle Wedding—

Rev. S. A. Douglas has returned from Riddle, in Douglas county, where on the evening of Thanksgiving day he performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Alice Lake, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lake, with Edward Francis, of Portland.

New Candy Store—

W. A. Palmer, of Corvallis, has leased one-half of the store building on G street adjoining the Bartlett shoe store, Geo. Calhoun occupying the other half of the store. Mr. Palmer expects to be ready for business this week with a stock of home-made candies.

School District Levy 7½ Mills—

At the meeting of the patrons of school district No. 7, held Saturday, the budget as prepared by the directors was approved, and a levy of 7½ mills was made to cover it. This levy is one mill less than that necessary last year, the expenses of the district having been pruned by a considerable amount. Only 14 of the patrons of the district attended the meeting, and the proposal to commence the providing for a gymnasium for the high school was defeated by a tie vote.

Attention Electors—

The city registration books will close, in accordance with the provisions of the City Charter, on Friday, December 3, 1915, at six o'clock p. m. The books will be open each day preceding during office hours. The books will also be open on the evenings of Monday and Tuesday of this week, from 7 o'clock to 8:30 o'clock, for the convenience of those who can not register during the day. Tuesday evening will be the last evening session of the registration clerks. The evening sessions as herein announced will be prolonged as long as necessary to accommodate any persons who are in line. Only those persons who have registered during the month of November, 1915, are registered for the annual city election to be held December 6, 1915. You are interested in the choice of your city officials for the coming year. You should take part in their selection. Only a few more than one-half of the electors of the city have registered. Do not delay the matter of your registration longer.

H. H. Basler,

Auditor and Police Judge.

More Fords Arrive—

Joseph Moss yesterday received another carload of Fords, this making the seventh car received in Grants Pass this season.

Drives Maxwell Auto—

F. S. Brainwell has purchased a new Maxwell automobile through the agency of C. A. Winetrot, and Saturday drove to Medford with it, being accompanied on the trip by his sons, who recently came here from LaGrande.

Mr. Brown Came Back—

E. J. Brown returned today from Leon, Iowa, where he went early in October, expecting to remain. Mr. Brown owns a good Iowa farm on which he proposed to settle down, but on reaching Grants Pass he remarked that he would rather be a tramp in Oregon than to live in the east.

Elks Are Invited—

Rev. Charles Wilson Baker, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church, has issued personal invitations to all members of the B. P. O. E. with whom he can come in touch to meet at the Guild hall at 8 o'clock Monday night for a pleasant social evening. All members of the organization in the city are requested to be present at that time.

Wanted to Rent—

Small or large ranch, with or without stock. Must have water for irrigation. Address No. 2058, Courier. 08

Chicken Pie Supper and Sale—

The Methodist Ladies' Aid will hold their annual sale in the church parlors on Friday, December 3. The doors will be open at 12 o'clock, at which time delicious home-made candy, aprons, towels and articles of fancy work will be offered for sale. Beginning at 5:30, a chicken pie supper will be served. Your patronage will be appreciated. 604

Don't Elbow—

For place during the last day and hour. Register early. 604

Missionary Meeting—

Mrs. Frank Jones, the field worker for the Women's Missionary society, will meet the ladies in the Christian church parlor Friday afternoon, December 3, at 2:30 p. m. She will also meet the children at 4 p. m. the same afternoon. The women of all missionary societies are invited.

In the Jam—

On the last day of registration. You may be if you delay. 604

Parent-Teachers Meeting—

The Parent-Teachers association of Grants Pass will meet at the high school on Thursday evening, December 2, at 8 p. m. Mrs. W. W. Usher, of Ashland, chairman of the educational department of the Southern Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs and for three years vice-president of the State Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teachers association, will give an address. It is earnestly hoped that there may be a full attendance of parents and teachers. A social hour will follow the meeting.

At Six P. M.—

Friday, December 3, the registration books will close. 604

Books for the Boys—

This week, November 28 to December 4, is "Safety First Juvenile Book Week," originated by the Boy Scouts and observed by their organization throughout the country. A suggested list of books for a child's own library has been prepared and a supply is ready for distribution at the public library. Parents and others intending to purchase Christmas books for children will find this list helpful in making selections. Any title on the list may be ordered through the local booksellers.

Entertainment December 5—

The annual entertainment of the Women's Missionary society of the Christian church will be given Sunday evening, December 5, at the Christian church. After the opening exercises a playette will be given, entitled "America's Expenditures," with the following cast of characters: America, Ellen Thrasher; American missions, Eleanor Cougle; jewelry, Jennie Faubion; chewing gum, Olive Rowley; candy, Leah Perdue; soft drinks, Estella Stovall; millinery, Minnie Trimble; army and navy, Fanny Trimble; tobacco, Della Manuel; firecrackers, Alice Cougle; liquor, Emma Perkey; foreign missions, several children.

FILE CHARGES OF COURT CONTEMPT AGAINST WARDEN

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 27.—Attorney General Wiley Jones filed contempt proceedings in the state supreme court today charging Warden R. B. Sims of Florence penitentiary with failure to obey the mandate of the court ordering him to hang William Faltin. Sims will be called before the court to show why he should not be punished for refusing to obey the court's order early next week.

Faltin received the news of Sim's action without apparent emotion. "I did not expect to hang," he said. "The news is no surprise to me."

The status of Faltin's case will be determined by court action later.

Early Australian Squatters. Squatters in Australia used to be able to take up crown lands at a yearly rent of a penny an acre.

Nelson's Monument. The Nelson monument in London weighs about 1,500 tons and is 177 feet high.

Chinese Babies. The heads of all Chinese babies are shaved when the little ones become a month old.

Deep Sea Fishes. Nearly all bottom sea fishes have the power of changing color at will, like chameleons.

Never Still. Mrs. Nagrem—And do you love me still? Nagrem (wearily)—I don't know. I've never had the chance.

Mistaken. Fat—And you also said I hadn't the manners of a hog. Lean—Oh, no, I didn't! I said you had.—Exchange.

Domestic Amenity. She—You know perfectly well that I could have married a dozen men as good as you—a good deal better, in fact. He—Well, don't blame me if you were so insane over me as all that.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Naturally. "I just ate a comic supplement," said the goat. "How do you feel after eating this comic supplement?" inquired the cow. "Sort of funny inside."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Scotland Yard. Scotland Yard, England's great detective headquarters, is said to have derived its name from a palace which formerly occupied the spot of the original site and in which the Scottish ambassadors were lodged.

Worse Luck. Mrs. Brown—You know I went to the employment agency—Mrs. Jones—Yes? Did you get a cook that suited you? Mrs. Brown—Why, no! I couldn't even get a cook that didn't suit me!—Boston Journal.

How It Is. Mrs. Gotham—I met Mr. Meek and his wife in the street today. Mr. Gotham—Oh, did you? Clever chap, Meek, isn't he? Mrs. G.—Clever? Why, he never opened his mouth the whole time.—Exchange.

MURPHY

Mr. Shoup is moving back to the Dr. Johnson place after working down Rogue river on the old Pritchard ranch during the summer.

Mrs. D. O. Hayes has a sister from Merlin visiting her.

Mrs. Carey moved out from Grants Pass to the tract purchased from the Madrona Land company. Mr. Carey is expected to arrive from Alaska in a few days. Mrs. Carey's father and mother, who came from Wisconsin in October, have been living on the place.

Lester Darnelle has purchased an auto and hereafter will travel at a more rapid gait.

A. A. Hyde has gone to Portland to visit a daughter.

Miss Hague, the Murphy teacher, is spending the Thanksgiving vacation at Kerby with her sister, who teaches in the Kerby school.

Quite a number of Grants Pass expert shots came out one day this week to shoot for turkeys. There are some pretty good shots in the Applegate valley, who captured among other prizes a fat hog.

This valley has been pretty thoroughly canvassed by sugar beet men and with few exceptions every one has signed up for beets.

London and Garlic. Curious how the old-time old wives' remedies come back by way of the modern doctor. Garlic has been practically banished from England for centuries, and the smell of it is the first greeting of the Calais landing stage. France has found garlic a most valuable antiseptic. London, fumbling among its memories, finds Garlic hill and a church named Garlickhithe. But since it posed as a remedy for the great plague garlic has ceased its smell in London.—London Tatler.
